NOTICE TO THE PATIENT

(Pursuant to the requirements of Section 183.7 of this title (relating to Denial of License Discipline of License) and Section 6.11, subsections (b) through (d), V.A.C.S., article 4495b, governing the practice of acupuncture.)

I, (patient's name) _____, am notifying the Acupuncture & Herbs Clinic

Yes No I have been evaluated by a physician or dentist for the conditions being treated within 12 months before the acupuncture was performed. I recognized that I should be evaluated by a physician for the condition being treated by the acupuncturist.

Yes No I have received a referral from my chiropractor within the last 90 days for acupuncture.

After being referred by a chiropractor, if after 120 days or 30 treatments, whichever comes first, no substantial improvement occurs in the condition being treated, I understand that the acupuncturist is required to refer me to a physician. It is my responsibility and choice whether to follow his or her advice.

INFORMED CONSENT TO TREATMENT

I consent to acupuncture and other procedures associated with Traditional Chinese Medicine by the clinic doctor (Licensed Acupuncturist) named below. I have discussed the nature and purpose of my treatment with the doctor named below.

I understand that methods of treatment may include, but are not limited to, acupuncture, moxibustion, cupping, electrical stimulation, Tui Na (Chinese massage), Chinese herbal medicine, and nutritional counseling.

I have been informed that acupuncture is a safe method of treatment, but that it may have side effects, including bruising, numbness, or tingling near the needling sites that may last a few days and dizziness or fainting. Bruising is a common side effect of cupping. Unusual risk of acupuncture includes spontaneous miscarriage. Infection is another possible risk, although the clinic uses sterile needles and maintains a clean and safe environment. Burns and/or scarring are a potential risk of Moxibustion. I understand that while this document describes the major risks of treatment, other side effects and risks may occur.

The herbs and nutritional supplements (which are from plant, animal and mineral sources) that have been recommended are traditionally considered safe in the practice of Chinese Medicine, although some may be toxic in large doses. I understand that some herbs may be inappropriate during pregnancy. Some possible side effects of taking herbs are nausea, gas, stomachache, vomiting, headache, diarrhea, hives, and tingling of the tongue.

I understand that the herbs need to be prepared and the tea consumed according to the instructions provided orally and in writing. The herbs may have an unpleasant smell or taste. I will immediately notify the doctor of any unanticipated or unpleasant effects associated with the consumption of the herbal teas.

I will notify the doctor who is caring for me if I am or become pregnant. I do not expect the doctor to anticipate and explain all possible risks and complications of treatment, and I wish to rely on the doctor to exercise judgment during the course of treatment which the doctor thinks at the time, based upon the facts then known, and is in my best interests.

I understand the doctor may review my medical records and lab reports, but all my records will be kept confidential and will not be released without my written consent.

By voluntarily signing below I show that I have read, or have had read to me, this consent to treatment, have been told about the risks and benefits of acupuncture and other procedures, and have had an opportunity to ask questions. I intend this consent form to cover the entire course of treatment for my present condition and form any future condition(s) for which I seek treatment.
